

GOD'S PEOPLE KEEP SINGING

Hallelujah, It Is Finished

Philip Hess

G. Koehn

Hal - le - lu - jah! It is fin - ished, Let the val - leys ech - o back. Let the hills re - bound the ten - or of the song.
How the Sav - ior quelled the Ser - pent with un - fath - om - a - ble rout! While ten thou - sand, thou - sand an - gels stood in awe;
He has dealt in lov - ing kind - ness, of His mer - cies I will sing; with my mouth His faith - ful - ness will I make known.
ten - or of the song,
ang - els stood in awe;
known, will I make known.

For the con - qu'ror Death is van - quished by the Vic - tor on the rack. Hal - le - lu - jah to the One whom praise be - longs. (be - longs.)
When He died by cru - el tor - ment on the God - for - sak - en mount, let this sto - ry ev - 'ry ran - somed saint en - thrall. (en - thrall.)
I will lift my hands to hea - ven in sur - rend - er to my King, and will cast my - self in rap - ture at His throne! (His throne!)

Hal - le - lu - jah to the Lamb that was slain, Hal - le - lu - jah is our joy - ous re - frain.
Hal - le - lu - jah Hal - le - lu - jah

Let us sing a song of praise Glo - ry, glo - ry to the Lamb, Hal - le - lu - jah to the great I AM.
Hal - le - lu - jah A - men.

Philip and Betsy Hess live near Bethel, Pennsylvania, with their two children, Damaris and David. Philip works in dismanteling and rebuilding old barns. They attend a small, home-based fellowship, where they earnestly desire the kingdom of Christ to grow.
